About The Place

Tirthan Valley in Kullu District of Himachal Pradesh is perched at an altitude of 1600 metres above sea level. Deriving its name from Tirthan River flowing through it, Tirthan Valley lies around 3 km from the entrance of Great Himalayan National Park. This place is abundant in adventurous activities and a paradise for nature lovers.

The magnificent Himalayas with snow-covered tops looking over the Tirthan River, this valley is best known for its trout fishing, trekking, and adventure activities and beautiful guesthouses set in nature. At 10800 meters lies the beautiful Jibhi Jalori pass that can be reached either by road or by trekking. You can visit the beautiful Serolsar Lake that resides in a beautiful backdrop of rich green hills and tall trees.
